

THE STORY OF

Bra Vo By Terisita

STREETWEAR WITH SOUL

Stitched from strength. Built with love.

BraVo by Terisita is a brand born from resilience, purpose, and legacy.

Terisita, a qualified food technologist, left behind the pressure of her previous business after the passing of her husband, Volan. With two daughters still at school, she chose to slow down – and in that quiet, she discovered sewing.

A single fleece-lined tracksuit sparked something more:

A streetwear line rooted in identity, comfort, and soul.

The name BraVo is deeply personal – a tribute to Volan, lovingly called “BraVo” by his colleagues (Bra for brother, Vo for Volan). Every garment carries a part of him, stitched into wearable stories.

BraVo by Terisita is for those who move boldly, dress authentically, and wear their truth with pride.
